Summary reminder of the last energetic updates.

The New Moon/Aquarius is additionally igniting a strong frequency stellium in the Yin/Yang Quantum Leap Plateau today.

This New Moon is a game changer although we may not realise it immediately - integration of this great light-flash fusion throughout the week, is a key to achieving concrete functional embodiment.

A lot of activity, especially uncovering and pulling back the layers that is happening within you. Unlocking/exposing through the powerful enrichment of the Aquarian quality Free Spirit aspect and its 6 bearers (Mooness, Sun, Mercury, Venus, Jupiter, Saturn) of the current direct connection.

Serving only one to activate your lens of reality, once we see clearly we can let go of the illusions and distractions, distil our atmosphere and clear the veils of fog.

You are already in the midst of the floods of preparation to open the portal of cultural renaissance.

In the overarching light real-time transmissions from the 22nd dimension impressively infuse the expanded epochal shift of pervasive transformation (already started on 3/2 and ending on 2/3) and its first initiation of a new cycle (which will reach its zenith in 2074 and 2160).

The light bridge connection encodes some spontaneous fractals of new consciousness, in which love is calibrated at the highest level through the heart and nervous system, through the higher lens of each being, and flashed highly electrically at the highest pressure through the atmosphere and our cellular system.

This soul expansion and its interwoven accelerated growth will bring long term consequences.

Your decisions and actions create the main theme of the next 2 years.

All chakras are activated as the lower chakra system (root, sacral, solar plexus) unleash the new templates of forceful action flooded via the spin expansion of the zeal/enthusiasm chakra (seat medulla oblongata).

Watch for inspirational thoughts and intuitive guidance coming through now at this time. It is an invitation to co-create with the Universe. You will come across several significant switch points over the next 4 weeks.

Stay connected to your power so that you can dance in perfect symphony with the grand plan of the cosmos. You are a spark of divine intelligence honour creation and the Creator within you.

Be especially mindful of what your heart consciousness is asking you to do, where you can take action and make changes to bring your life into perfect alignment. Trust and let yourself fall before the Universe intervenes this February with hard repetitions and lessons.

The necessary key of evolution lies within you. It is your willingness to peel yourself out of your own comfort zone and preferred default setting in this process.

New consciousness requires new agreements, contracts and ways of working in order to fully integrate and embody.

Love as a frequency, as a universal language or as Omniversal Coding produces results that grow expand and extend to new dimensions.

If we work from a universal context, all our systems become active.

So far we have, either the collective consciousness through the fluid meandering interconnections in the body system or the past salient moments of history, changed in the repeating units/teaching content through alignment of perspective with our human understanding. When you surrender personal perception/sensing to your inner critic and its higher reflection, thus overriding the outdated thought constructs and their dialogues - shifting into stillness/rest this energy frequency can eventually calibrate the entire operating system.

When this status quo programming - unconscious default setting - is interrupted to change the channel and move to a higher conversation, we activate new consciousness.

Your Homebase, your world is full of beauty, all the clearing work over the next few weeks is geared towards finding the encouragement needed to become aware of this beauty.

The key is love, the binary coding behind creation, universal frequency, universal language, a force of nature, a contextual code of ethics that can be applied to all types of interaction, reuniting, reconnecting creation and all information sent.

The sound of the ultra-high frequency spectacle heightens the dynamic.

The light bridge connection is encoding some spontaneous fractals of new consciousness in the coming week, in which love at the highest level is calibrating through the heart and nervous system, through the higher lens of each being, and flitting highly electrically through the atmosphere and our cellular system.

You have probably been noticing this encoding, this sudden surge of energy since 6/2 and you have also probably been feeling the urge to hydrate more intensely, to be more present in the now moment and to go to a place of rest, to recuperate.

The new social consciousness initiated on 21/12/4 with the Jupiter-Saturn conjunction at 0°/Aquarius has catapulted the entire collective consciousness to expand and grow together to a higher level.

The expansion of this level requires sustainable systems and structures that allow us all to move forward.

New consciousness requires new agreements, contracts and ways of working to fully integrate and embody.

This may well mean separations in your fields of interaction once again.

The necessary key of evolution lies within you. It is your willingness to peel yourself out of your own comfort zone and preferred default setting in this process, even if you feel very uncomfortable, sick, exhausted most of the time.

The holistic practice of self-love, where each piece and part is in harmonious resonance with the whole within our own selves, is fundamental.

The all-encompassing consciousness of love demands unconditional surrender/capitulation of your personalised and outdated constructs of emotion fields and body sensations.

A necessary step, for if you act out with your outdated consciousness still functioning through separation, lack or fear, you will recreate the old results even in the midst of a new template of oneness.

To truly understand and manifest oneness and the vision of oneness through love, your personal inner operating system must reconfigure itself to function and thrive with a calibrated frequency of love in perfection.

To calibrate an operating system of love, love must be understood as a frequency of energy, not just a temporary feeling or emotion directed at a person.

Love as a frequency, as a universal language or as Omniversal Coding produces results that grow expand and extend to new dimensions.

If we work from a universal context, all our systems become the active embodiment of love.

Your entire body system consistently works as an expression of self-love - unconditional self-love - immune strength .

Universal love in action works through the white blood cells of the individual. The purpose of the immune system is to enhance the optimal functioning of the individual so that the holistic system thrives. If any part of the system is not attuned to love, there is disharmony, stagnation and exhaustion.

Your sound/ tone your voice and most of the time in all the daily happenings you are totally unaware of, in your cells is of utmost importance.

We either repeat the collective consciousness through the fluid meandering interconnections in the body system or we repeat the past salient moments of history. When you surrender personal perception/sensing to your inner critic and its reflection, thus overriding the outdated thought constructs and their dialogues - shifting into stillness/rest this energy frequency can eventually calibrate the entire operating system.

When this status quo programming - unconscious default setting - is interrupted to change the channel and move to a higher conversation, we activate new consciousness.

A lightning-like state shift of consciousness.

So if you want to achieve new results individually personally and synchronously collectively, you must be willing to disrupt the current language especially disempowering thoughts, attitudes and beliefs, to engage with new possibilities of a vision of oneness, love, abundance and freedom.

No matter how many wonderful updates we receive, if we have judgmental, pessimistic, sarcastic or disempowering thoughts in our mind field, we weave this frequency into our inner atmosphere and embody this toxic inner conversation throughout our system.

Transformation begins with attuning the mind to the heart, in sync with the divine nature of all Interstellar Space.

When the heart motivates, informs and inspires our thoughts, words and actions, we begin to embody the heart, which means we embody love.

Aligning thoughts, words and actions with the frequency of love and a context of oneness, we begin to manifest these results within and around us.

Love informs and inspires our entire operating system - mother plane/planet, fauna, flora, individual, embodiment, is actively expressed in every cell of our being and can be seen and felt through the atmosphere.

Love is the Source Coded Basic Attitude at the most personal and collective levels and the key to your revolutionary forward/upward movement, the key of social civilisation.

Love is the universal language, the binary coding behind all creation.

Understanding and integrating love as a frequency into our inner operating system is essentially independent of earthling sensitivities.

It is important to take time to slowly digest and reconfigure your thought formations and personal patterns.

The New Moon/Aquarius also ignites a strong frequency stellium in the yin/yang quantum leap plateau this week.

Remember This New Moon is a Game Changer although we may not realise it immediately - integration of this great light-flash infusion throughout the week, is a key to achieving concrete functional embodiment.

A lot of activity, especially uncovering and peeling back layers, coming at you. Serving only one to activate your lens of reality, once we see clearly we can let go of the illusions and distractions, distil our atmosphere and clear the veils of fog.

A zenith around the mind-body feedback loop and the transformation that comes from your results and manifestations will be reached mid-week.

If you are willing to look at your physical reality, its patterns and outcomes with a neutral lens of equanimity/neutrality and love, we can consciously change the patterns that have created the outcomes.

Love is the universal frequency, love is a force of nature, a language system and a contextual code of ethics that can be applied to all types of interaction and unifies creation.

We have received triple graded blue plasma light frequency codes today to assist us in upgrading our manifestation process.

* Reforming and Crystallising *******

A preparation for the opening of the portal of cultural renaissance with superior light real-time transmission from the 22nd dimension, in which the expanded epochal change of omnipresent transformation begins on 3/2 and on 2/3 the first initiation of a new cycle that will reach its zenith in 2074 and 2160 is completed.

In divine information geometry, 5 represents life itself. 5 represents the pulsation of the creation of positive change and its fundamental power. Its upward energy spiral is interwoven with the concept of the perfect divine humanoid urging to expand and climb to the next level in life.

In the elements the 5 represents the ether, free flowing and adaptable filling all space with creation information and thriving in all environments, then breaking out further into the 4 elements of fire, water air and earth to manifest again in the earthlings the 5 perfect balances of extremities and senses.

This renewal of self-confidence will affect you positively.

This soul expansion and its interwoven accelerated growth will bring long term consequences.

Your decisions and actions will create the main theme of the next 2 years.

Be especially mindful of what your heart consciousness is asking you to do, where you can take action and make changes to bring your life into perfect alignment. Trust and let go before the Universe intervenes with hard repetitions and lessons this February.

Look out for inspirational thoughts and intuitive guidance coming through now at this time. It is an invitation to co-create with the Universe. You will come across several significant switch points over the next 5 weeks. Stay connected to your power so that you can dance in perfect symphony with the grand plan of the cosmos. You are a spark of divine intelligence honour creation and the Creator within you.

All chakras are affected as the lower chakra system (root, sacral, solar plexus) unlock the new templates of forceful action.

The expression in the body correspondence shows itself through pressure and diffuse whole body pain especially humming in the upper chakras heart palpitations, grief(fading of the old eon - separation pain) and motivation (to materialise consciously in the real new existence- expansion of neuroplasticity)) coupled with the desire to do something to overcome physical limitations.

Raising of heart energy new truth and perspectives, more creativity in union with your passion and this wants to be seen.

Those who have already been able to experience the sublime experience of an NDE have been allowed to dock their physical vibrational alignment back to this conscious state of deep, wide love, deep, wide compassion, deep, wide peace, deep, wide warmth, the experiences and sensations in multidimensional space, transferred and integrated into this reality, which now also brings a magnificent intensive expansion of the senses online - how do you feel like this without separation of your experienced reality of heaven in embodiment, how is it for you to be able to perceive all life simultaneously? In this exponential explosion of human sense and consciousness reexpansion, make sure you have plenty of downtime in the stillness of nature, stay hydrated and understand you are in a highly complex experiential stage, try to follow only your assigned lifeguards, they know about your change of state.

If we do not turn our lens to it, immune problems, wild dreams, fatigue, anger, frustration, even frustration with creation and with this world and its earthlings. Intensity of these emotions and emotional sensitivity throbbing in the throat - dry throat, swollen tonsils, tongue, pain in the thymus area, jaw, throat and neck tension, congested/congested sinus (when noticed the cascade of flow opens) congested or water filled ears, head pressure, temporal lobes, Medula Oblongata - migraine-like, flu symptoms, aching, sore joints, heavy in the chest, uncomfortable digestive pain, solar plexus - girth increase in the middle torso, kidney pain, scapula pain, red dry eyes, blurred vision, pain behind the eyes, low grade headache associated with deep heart pain.

Stay connected to your power so that you can dance in perfect symphony with the great plan of the cosmos. You are a spark of divine intelligence honour creation and the creator within you.

To be a cosmic stub more active, as with this the upgrading of the lower chakras, which no longer want to dim their brilliance and vibrate small, can adjust.

Shift Update 1-28/2

Posted by Jada Alesandra Seidl February 1, 2021

7-universal month in a 5-universal year - accelerating growth in self-study.

Prioritised dates of star-encoding/portal openings and transmissions and upgrades at DNA/cellular level 1 /2 -2/2 - 10/2- 11/2- 12/2- 19/2 20/2- 21/2- 22/2- 28/2

Body correspondence -pineal gland, parts of hypothalamus, visual and olfactory systems, inner lens- outer left eye, adrenal system, auditory system, lymphatic system, ear and sinus problems, jaw pressure, temporal lobe, larynx, thyroid, pancreas, parts of kidney system, reproductive system, gonads, neurotransmitters, thoracic vertebrae, sacral vertebrae.

Psychic correspondence- depression, anxiety- escape from reality into addiction-emotionalism, lack of exercise, sedatives, mood altering substances, compulsive overeating, smoking, drugs, medicines, fanatically religious, pronounced starchy cravings- carbohydrates, wheat floury, brandy, chocolate, gluten containing.

2021/5 is a year of adjustments and experimentation and as January ends we have left behind the first chapter of an intense and tense phase marked by two strong electromagnetic alignments (Mars and Uranus) and the heavens remark - you have done great.

Universal month 7, in the second chapter of our yearbook we are further encouraged to push our diversity and adaptability without fear of acute plan changes/alterations.

As there is still a lot going on in the fixed signs, it is important to avoid stagnation and remain flexible.

We are reaching a new level of self-vibration which, through the higher cosmic consciousness and its energy quality, stimulates us to enter the space of self-reflection through introspection.

In February we will therefore still perceive restlessness and a strong need for substantial change.

The coming weeks will also continue to exude tension between all the planets - the larger cogs of our solar system - transiting Aquarius Mars and Uranus in Taurus.

The natural square aspect between the two fixed signs of Taurus and Aquarius will be very active. Especially on 17/2 when we experience the first of three exact squares between Saturn and Uranus. All three Saturn/Uranus squares carry significantly relevant events for the whole collective and convey the enduring theme and expression of the 5s year.

At the beginning of the new month - 1 / 2 Venus leaves Capricorn and moves into Aquarius by 25/2 (CEST 04:06h) joining the round of Sun, Mercury, Jupiter and Saturn.

Those five planets transiting the quality of Aquarius push the frequency of change of the new aeon and the emphasis is extremely strong.

During Venus' journey through the flow of Aquarius, she will square Uranus and Mars and make connections with Mercury and Jupiter.

We receive lessons in the areas of understanding, love, self-worth, togetherness/for each other and our value system.

What do we mean by love, how does our value system, our self-esteem shape up and what needs to change within ourselves to unfold social changes of the cosmic Christ consciousness.

The desires of your higher heart are increasingly eccentric and experimental to keep the inner freedom of the 5th dimension, your new path more stable, let the flames of your inner light blaze vigorously in this 3 ½ week phase.

Your Homebase, your world is full of beauty, all the clearing work of the next few weeks is geared towards finding the encouragement needed to become aware of this beauty.

Distorted perception and melancholy are fuelled by Venus - Neptune - Chiron in the first week of February- Yin Phase- leading to the wounding of your self-worth.

We all know that emotions can lead to bliss or despair.

Remember, pain is a directional sign for change in your response to healing, trust the course of events and know no one but yourself can shift the dramas and traumas inflicted on you from the outside or yourself into healing.

In parallel, Mercury is in Aquarius all month and moving retrograde until 20/2.

Mercury will inspire you to think for yourself, challenge our assumptions and habitual thought patterns and inspire you to think objectively/ neutrally about all events taking place.

Towards the end of the first week 7/1 Mercury conjoins Chiron- the second of 3 connections of the growth shift - observing- attitude- action (first 21/1, third 9/3).

Those who have been painfully reminded from 21/1 onwards by whatever means of not even being allowed to simply face their earthly families (parents, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, best friends, mentors) in reality due to the restrictions of the collective overall event, have the opportunity to use/discover a key to shifting out-of-sync alignments between body/mind, of pain and suffering points of deep memory data into new perspectives through memories/deja vu that flush to the surface.

Missing puzzle pieces in the earthly mind that you need to access the cosmic information field may also block you in week two in the deep sea dive of emotion alignment. This dive can be frustrating and impulsive. Be patient, take a step back, take time before you act to allow your conscious heart space of clarity.

Know that none of the cosmic change impulses of evolution that you perceive in your embodiment happen without meaning. Every source frequency impulse, no matter how small, carries the information for the push of your change, which only you as an individual can allow. Only when you develop an understanding of why some things in you are painful, cruel, repetitive and you have overcome the edge of the mind-whiner does the magnificent crystalline depth of the clear flow direction of creation reveal itself.

The good news, the immense pressure from the cosmos (healing impulse) in the archetype of the Aquarian Age will lessen as the Sun and Venus move further into Pisces.

New Moon in Aquarius 11/ 2(CEST: 20:08)

Sun and Moon unite in Aquarius inviting objectivity and neutrality/impartiality - towards everyone and yourself.

New inspiring alliances are forged. We are able to take responsibility for shared achievements. There are new shared areas of responsibility, which also means standing up together when things don't go so well or even when mistakes are made. An inspiration, sent by Mercury and Venus, to find harmony when we open our hearts with curiosity and without preconceptions.

At the same time, the Sun, Moon and Mercury form a supportive trine with the Moon's North Node in Gemini. This harmonious alignment has the potential to facilitate intellectual understanding of our experiences and your role in the personal development journey.

The square between the New Moon and Mars in Taurus can reveal frustration and tension that has the potential to prompt changes that motivate you to change your life for the better.

During the New Moon Venus dances with Jupiter in Aquarius, inviting you to challenge your beliefs and assumptions about interactions/relationships, love and abundance, while increasing all of our need for social associations and pleasurable experiences.

Scattering a mega cornucopia of bliss are retrograde Mercury and Jupiter on 14/2 - Valentine's Day.

Saturn in Aquarius square to Uranus in Taurus 17/2 CEST 09:08 h- the first of three conjunctions (second 13/6 and third 24/12).

While Uranus in Taurus reflects disruptions to our stability and a strong need to break free from stagnation, Saturn in Aquarius urges us to focus on long-term solutions and innovative alternatives to all current system constructs.

One thing is certain, we feel a constant up and down, back and forth in this phase between our attempts to free ourselves from the old and the opposing weight of returning to familiar idiosyncrasies that exemplify security.

Likewise, Mars is opposite Chiron the healer in this 3rd week of February - it is essential to remember, you alone make the decision to continue to wander in denial of reality (thinking through the reduced human mind) or to shake off the old entanglements.

While the Saturn-Uranus alignment reflects a long-term global collective shift, we will experience this tension on both a global societal and personal level.

Stepping out of victim mode, your comfort zone and taking responsibility by rising from the shadows of your self and its comfortable sofa means you face the world with a stronger manifestation.

Venus in Aquarius squares Mars in Taurus almost simultaneously. We may feel a crisis in terms of our needs, our values and our desires manifesting mainly in our relationships/interactions.

18/2 Sun- Yang current- moves into Pisces and stays there until 20/3. The pressure on our new Aquarian archetype 19/2 is easing. A compassionate, peace-loving mood docks with cosmic wisdom, inviting us to glide far beyond the limits of our minds, which intensely accelerates decision-making and stability of our very own commitment to action.

This annual passage of the Sun through the last house of the signs is an invitation to connect with the larger perspective and higher reality than your individual manifestation of the human self. The transition from Aquarius to Pisces represents the shift from the collective mind to the collective emotional body, from thinking to feeling. A time of forgiveness, surrender, alignment with unconditional love and acceptance of what we encounter on our multiple life paths.

It is also a space-time in which personal individual illusions and fantasies/delusions are uncovered. The Sun's journey in Pisces presents what we need to release.

Disillusionment experiences are also directional and are usually experienced as uncomfortable and painful, but help us to see clearly and if we accept them, they can promote deepest healing and spiritual growth.

Mercury's direct stationing (20/2- CEST 14:52h) in Aquarius is the time to apply the insights and ideas we were privileged to discover during the retrograde. Mercury, guardian of logic, communication and linear thinking invites us to act now to concretise our visions, hopes and dreams.

When a planet stations after a retrograde we experience a significant energetic shift. We are encouraged to implement what we have been thinking about, what we have been learning, over the past weeks. We have the opportunity to climb a further new level of consciousness and act with a different understanding in this reality that we have been allowed to gain during the cycle of introspection and readjustment.

25/2 CEST: 03:12 Venus leaves Aquarius and moves into Pisces which increases her expression of love and initiates a creative, generous, spiritual process of creation free of any boundaries. A cycle that encodes the cosmic configuration of forgiveness, generosity and kindness in the behaviours of togetherness/for each other, the key tools of heart consciousness in unity consciousness. An energy quality that reminds us of the most important essentials and asks us to free ourselves from earthly burdens - an excellent time to start a major clear-out, detox for body and mind and rid ourselves of material things we don't need.

The Full Moon on 27/2 (CEST: 09:19h) in Virgo, already at the end of the month, will help you to be grounded. Your discernment and critical thinking may again bring you into personal crisis, prompting you to dive into self-analysis to embrace and integrate the creative energy of change during the first two weeks of February, obligated by the heaviest self-work before you enter the power cycle of Universal Month 8.

Portal days - 02. 03. 10. 16. 21. 24.

Turn days: 3. 6. 8. and 16.

Spiritual Points: HW 2 - Grace and Consciousness that springs from the Divine Source, HW 5 - Joy, BW 2 -Manifestation, BW 5 -Clarity, BW 7 Mastery, LW 1 - Yang, LW 2 Yin.

Have a wonderful flight into the light heights of the February chapter and thank you for your attention and mindfulness.
