Ready to experience Interstellar Uploads, your individual transformational passage has opened its seals and your new route of migration in the higher time measurements has begun.

You already feel it and you may perceive, in the complexity of the change, a great restlessness, insecurity or overwhelm, frustration, fear or resistance and pain or emptiness- your old way of being is behind you and your new one is still alien to you, your earthly mind, clouding your clear vision.

Superficial modification will not reduce anything, it requires total transformation.

It is time to take your sovereignty and the responsibility that comes with it, to become aware of your power, your creation, your free will and to awaken your calling, which is perpetuated in your core wound, to master your soul lesson.

This stage is incredibly powerful but not everyone is moving through this current point in time and yet, there is a time in everyone's ascension journey when a certain point is finally reached so that the initiations of the new begin.

What you have worked on over the many decades is so great that you need to transmute at the lowest possible level. Your core vibrational frequency, your emotional body, your identity and the sensation of slipping apart while alive, that you don't even know who you really are any more and your true birth, that of your luminous creation essence for you, very individually barely visible, bring you closer to your reality than to any time existence before.

Which means, it is only when you dive deep down into your core, into your core wound and awaken your calling and begin to follow it, that you are able to enter into greater alignment with your aspect of creation, your soul essence.

Sovereign embodiment of soul essence means no longer dimming the encoded fundamental frequency, no longer compromising, in collective movements, cults, human fomented dynamics, linear constructs.

Consciousness creates different frequencies that allow it to manifest into the current reality.

Go into your qualifying space, it is time to listen to your heart to harmonise with the universal energies of creation. Listen to your heart and initiate, create your electromagnetic imprint that serves to attract the subtle messages of all the spiritual emissaries of Source Energy, your spiritual guidance for your life mastery.

All the luminous energy roads, connecting routes around you are filled with the whispers of your guides. Smell, taste, see and hear the signs, symbols, phenomena and triggers.

Harvest time - the most beautiful treasures of your integrity are already there, the greatest gift you can give to your and all the world and reality is
YOUR HIGHEST SELF

Greetings from the holiday sky

Conception - taking and giving - giving and taking - the unity consciousness of the collective and the actual expression of self-worth, togetherness and eye-level.

Buckle up, fasten your seat belts, the last two weeks of August will take many of us to the next level of our lives. The collective rebirth of unity consciousness.

This process will first and foremost bring to the surface the stored toxic media of ethical togetherness, the expression of self and its lived actual value.

After this output, it will feel stagnant, as if there is a lack of growth. This is because all encodings in the core of the heart, in the bio-engineering of the light body, in the swapping of templates of the new lumination level need some rest/regeneration.

Use this small window to carefully prepare and focus on greater goals. Right now you are in a great arc to embody your authentic sovereign of what you really want to be in this life.

Each peak moment of detachment reached brings to the surface the chaos and poison we are detaching from.

The plateau reveals what we are no longer aligned with and what is no longer meant to remain in our realm of being.

The recent peak reveals why we are out of harmony with certain interactions (situations/people/operations) to the core of creation.

The arc has been taut since the 24/7 (1st Aquarian Full Moon), but each arc has infinite threads of sequence, which in turn are filled from the cradle of our habitable system with plasma light encodings, iridescent pastel, pearlescent rainbow vibrations of the Celestial Realm to stimulate earthlings to move in the greatest chaos and its triggers, to be able to view all with the highest lens of love of our Heart Self.

Truly, there is not much left to realign the cosmic-earthly balance to a new level. All inhabitants of this sphere of life have been provided with a great deal of informed star-coding and opportunity, many have abundantly accepted.

The interaction of interaction is to accept this love of creation in every form of life, to pass it on through all forms of life, creates the balance of polarity.

When we understand that our Self holds the rarest superpower in this world, the capacity of humanity, all practices of collective manipulators no longer have a breeding ground.

If we meet ourselves with love, respect and mindfulness, we accept and embrace our divinity, our light with all that makes us.

If we understand that our light creates our reality and our entire perception of this world, we can also pass on this radiance. We understand the mechanics of the reflection of the ether of light - I am you and you are me - you and I can never lack anything, because we meet at eye level - in oneness with the Omniverse.

Our biosphere is advancing and the sequence threads are enabling a much faster light dynamic so that the manifest celestial sphere of the new aeon can be embodied.

Since 2017/11/2 more specifically in the events of 21/7 (Aquarian New Moon to 21/8/Solar Eclipse) there have been core frequency dissonances of collective change and self-expression in the authentic Sovereign belonging to different time lineages that have now split in recent weeks.

At that time, the teaching content encoded personal sovereignty and self-love to learn to embody an enhanced authentic life mission with confidence and grace. Now (in the last few weeks) the plateau build-ups for setting the course have once again increased in intensity, will continue and we must be ready to let go of all that needs to fall away.

Each angelic embodied energy of creation, each individual chooses their own path of light body connection, their own trajectory, their own individual direction to test their best version of creation with the tsunami force of Uranus' revolutionary shift, which we have learned during the upheavals of the last 48 months to bring more stability to the course of our life mission.

To integrate the new level, the hurdle of inferiority on the goal straight must be overcome. This hurdle manifests as the tendency to look down on others who are perceived in one's own illusion as not as consciously advanced or awakened.

The trap of superiority can be seen as a subtle feeling of being better than others/the other that, according to the individual distorted ego perception, does not/can not want to be seen on the same spiritual level, at eye level.

In more extreme cases, this trap can appear as the tendency to fight a dark battle on other earthlings with the most repugnant, lowest ethical understanding in order to harvest as much lightful energy as possible during this split for oneself, the distorted ego.

The collective is on the verge of a massive breakthrough where the false masculine projection from the core of childhood is collapsing.

Many of you will feel a shifting dynamic with your fathers so you can really see the mirror of your own masculine wounds through this reflection.

You recognise your own through the figure of father flaws and come to understand the narcissistic templates running through your DNA so that your hidden shadows are allowed to dive into deeper relief and fully accept and transmute the pain between polarities for inner and outer union.

One of the greatest upheavals the masculine polarity has been stuck in is the rejection of the matrix. This is permanently reflected when separations in previous, as well as current incarnations, could not be accepted by the masculine energy. Need deprivation and pain-pleasure reaction caused by the matrix, even when the distortion of the masculine polarity begins to heal, there is an essential rejection of the matrix for life on Earth. An occurrence because the masculine needs, both internal and external, have not experienced the right path to manifestation in evolution.

The pleasure response that comes from the matrix (embedding medium of evolution of this template of life) is completely rejected. When the pain pleasure reaction is aligned by the new masculine polarity, the pain pulling or rather the pain tugging stops in the first energy base organ/root chakra in the self.

The iridic life is based on giving and receiving in all levels.

So these peaks bring reverberating conflicts as quanta are redistributed.

Successions of new energy record wave storms are not pleasant in any way and yet authentic collective change will now re-solidify.

The key is to return to grace and defend peace from the distorted controlling energies of consciousness, to free oneself from the webs of disgrace and anchor oneself more deeply into the pulsating jewel of the heart core to be infused with the All-encompassing Love of Creation.

The upcoming Blue Full Moon on 22/8 - the second in Aquarius in 5 - exerts a strong vibrational effect on self-expression and will dissolve and complete what was activated at the last Aquarian Full Moon in 11.

It merges with the iridescent rainbow sequences and the White Diamond photons of the Central Sun of our Galaxy , arcs to Andromeda and all together encode the higher template of consciousness dimension of our light body.

This navigation already feels very intense every single whole day since 24/7 and all biosphere dwellers have since been able to integrate many adjustments with sometimes more and sometimes less grace to now be allowed to flow without control in the Panta Rhei and to climb into the enjoyment of the new conscious outlook.

Some sensitivities in the Human Design of this phase are

- old fears creating new ones, mood swings - negative thought blossoms, depressive episodes followed by bliss (similar to mania), emotional outbursts, digestive problems, hyperacidity, air and water retention, haemorrhages, reduced bone density -(to the point of accelerated deterioration), body vibration, heat episodes followed by cold episodes (miasma breakdown)- migraine (atlas medulla oblongata, frontal cortex bilaterally), brain fog, Amnesia, fatigue, hyperactivity, drastic changes in sleep patterns, moist palms and feet, back pain, bronchitis, sore throats, blurred vision, sensitivity to light (reality becomes more radiant due to photon flooding of the mother -sphere and its grid) Tooth and jaw inflammation, hypothyroidism/hyperthyroidism, itchy skin rash (similar to herpes), sudden nausea, food intolerances, diurnal weight fluctuations (tangent time). Weight fluctuations (tangent timeline collapses and multi-real shifts) head symphonies(epiphysis and pituitary alignment and alignment) neck tension, bone fractures, general muscle tension (cramps) emerging hematomas, bursitis, joint pain.

Heartfelt greetings from holiday heaven

Since yesterday we have already been climbing one tower moment after another, building step by step the zenith of the summit moment to the Lion's Gate.

Do you feel this so unbelievably powerful shifting arc tension Earth- Sun- Sirius- Alcyone- Galactic Centre- Orion

It is as if you climb each and every one of the Seven Summits (hikers and mountaineers among you know about these blissful strains) from sea level 0 and immediately arc to the next. And all this at a marathon speed that is neither physically nor mentally familiar to you.

We are experiencing the highest density of concentration for the week in 50 years in this energy of amplification. How we use and receive this energy is up to us alone.

A spatially limited phase in which you must openly give your all, to fully trust in your power. Are you ready to support with impact and purity of heart?

To remain sure-footed on our path of the heart, we must be open. Openness in the face of discomfort requires conscious presence and a mindful attitude in the magic of merging macro-microcosm events.

It takes courage to walk the planet with an unconditionally open heart, to be fully seen in our vulnerability as well as our refined mastery, especially when the terrain is uncomfortable, unfamiliar or unpredictable.

When old hurts or wounds resurface, old muscle memories or familiar sensations of the past are activated, it is especially easy to slip into the old shoes and fall into historical sensations of pain.

If you engage in thoughts of doubt and fear, the result will reflect energy through lack.

Openness in the face of discomfort requires conscious presence and an attitude of courage. It is easy to live openness when we are allowed to gratefully recognise luminous things that touch our heart. However, it is even more important to live openness when moments of crisis pile up and nothing goes as we expect.

In every living being there is a naturally authentic creative spark of brilliance. Completely autonomous of what our defined task is in this life, this inherent luminous essence is in constant circulation and radiates into our aura.

We glow exponentially when our hearts are open. However, we can also dull or dim our essence when our heart is closed or dissolved -it makes us invisible.

If being visible and shining brightly germinates feelings of vulnerability, self-doubt or insecurity, now is the time to heal these imprints and reorient towards individual divine authentic expression.

The permission to be seen in high definition, full sound and multidimensional expression comes from within.

You must allow yourself this worthiness and not be afraid to claim space for your inner light.

This zenith calls us as never before to play the note we have wanted to play since the beginning. The collective activation of heartfelt expression unlocks a higher octave of universal potential ready to be born on the planet.

Pay special attention to what you manifest at this time, for you will be able to manifest anything at will. Every kick, every intention creates an immediate reality that cannot be stopped.

Many of you earthlings have already learned in your childhood days that love could only be experienced in a limited way and that love can leave you at any time. Many of you had to prove yourselves again and again to be "good enough" for your environment. In doing so, your own emotions were denied and instead of love a structure of fear was created - fear of abandonment, which dimmed your own circulating beacon through apology.

The truth is, you never have to apologise for your limits, needs, emotions, visions. Even if, through your self-empowerment, it puts those around you in uncertainty. Strengthened self-confidence means letting sovereignty shine.

The final revelation of your authentic sovereign is when you shine true mindfulness through your eyes, enliven true mindfulness through your mind into action, move with true mindfulness into experiences and aliveness that stimulate and stretch your mind into fusion, then systematically the karma of your DNA transforms into pure essence - into the sovereign of the infinite potential of creation.

Physically you may feel extremely exhausted and need extra reinforcement as resources are being used up much faster at this time. Tinnitus, headaches, diarrhoea, cough, runny nose, heavy body, radically altered sleep patterns. Mental frustration, depression, trapped in negative rondel, past memories or current past issue rebound are the expression of physical and mental pain clearing aimed at individual evolution.

Don't rebel against it, don't fight it with everything you know, that intensifies this field of experience many times over - take as much time out as possible, nurture your soul, your senses, your body.

Use the frequency of water, increase your daily fluid intake, go swimming or watch waves, play with the colour frequency blue turquoise blue or wear a Larimar if possible. Use Yoga Nidra, pay special attention to light food and use the frequency of the morning hours to upload the star codes ( efficiency is maintained even when it is cloudy).

August is all about convalescence and crystal clarity - Starcode 183411.

In this fierce high-frequency current tempo of August, some challenges and confusion will show up on our tempo-rich sailing turn.

The year of the yellow electric seed directs the heart accent to our place in the greater community and has already activated a new marker in your experiential journey ( solar plexus) with the first major fluid shifts.

We are all being called to clear the things that no longer match our current state of being, that we can't/won't accept -detox in all areas of life and spaces.

What and who really lights you up and lets you authentically create your life as sovereign.

For this purpose, the great space airport Sirius has once again increased its capacities, in direct connection with the Central Sun, and will reach the absolute maximum of high frequency transmissions on 8/8.

Until then, we Earthlings are asked to realise that the effort is not to seek our very essence of the energy of our creation, but to welcome the ego as a part of us.

It is important over the next two weeks to keep reminding yourself to come into the flow state so that the high frequency downloads can flow into you and the DNA without great foundlings of resistance.

As all light bodies activate, the seeds of potential, the electrifying bright yellow seeds will begin to germinate within you.

Your individual energy of eternal being of eternity is not bound by physical/anatomical limitation, it transcends all space and time and has consciously interwoven this individual body dress with all experiential palettes and levels of being with your true light and its infinite greatness.

You are literally a living embodiment of the entire Omniverse.

In your entire earthly process towards the true light-filled charismatic potential of your creation, you walk through inner and outer perception which generates your container through attitude-action of your personality.

The last cycle (especially the last 18 months) in the ascending spiral has triggered a deep metamorphosis within us through the energy of chaos and disorder and created a whole new sublime sacred space level with 22/7.

Perhaps it has already happened or is happening at this time, but certainly in the next few weeks of August many earthlings, also from your childhood school or early life path, will therefore cross you and push your boundaries to lift resources and possibilities that were activated in the past cycle - on the level of conscious emotion and mind - into a new level of convalescence on the heart level and replace all the old kind of masculine energy with a completely new fine, balanced, delicate self-awareness, balanced, delicate self-awareness of masculine creation energy birthing/materialising transformed in the biosphere and defining new boundaries of earthly being (a great sign showing you what interaction, relationship, situation your new lifted boundary needs to move further up your royal path).

You are diligently striving to raise your frequency and live in a state of soul positivity, but you cannot if you continue to digest things that do not serve your greater good, if you continue to build on the comfort zone of the familiar and do not accept the leap into the unknown with abandon.

You are currently at a starting point where present and past timelines are merging - you may be experiencing very real dream or astral journeys into the parallel plane of your being and experiencing approaching certain personal interaction spaces in different ways.

Karmic fragments need complete acceptance to be fully embodied. This means that you need to fully acknowledge the pain in the memory of your chakra system and accept the things that you were made to be - during your unconscious years of life - and that are distorting you in the present life to the point of total near-death exhaustion.

If you accept that right now in a parallel timeline you are pursuing these actions so that said fragment can be transmuted into a unified whole, a catalysing domino effect will encode and all karmic fragments will begin to unify into your unified whole. And separation/division of the present acceptance of your personality will be transmuted into unity.

The powerful tension alignment of the arc of planetary biosphere Earth with Sirius, Sun, Alcyone and Orion creates additional expanded energy vortices and connecting nodes in the flywheel of speed in the Earthling biohabitat.

And New Moon (Leo) on 8/8 and the 2nd Blue Full Moon (again Aquarius- 1st - 24/7) on August 22 round out the special August spice mix, especially the Blue Moon completes the arc of tension so that additional action is activated -an additional Full Moon between the Solstice and the Equinox - an event that only occurs every 2.7 years.

As a collective, we were urged in the last cycle to review the aspects of our lives that needed inevitable attention and to purify and cleanse our inner selves.

Now you will be more and more able to put into action all that you have been putting off for so long, until now.

You will begin to step more into your emotional power, regain clarity, act with optimism and determination for your path and the number of earthlings who are fully rooted in their soul purpose and mission will increase significantly.

Human Design physical correspondence - TIA like prolonged dizziness, pronounced amnesia states, piezoelectric activation to increase pressure of CSF cranial cavity ventricle, brain and spinal column - pronounced migraine like headaches, brief loss of vision(all the above correspondences activate the crystal jewel to curate the metaphysical abilities) hand and ankle pain, Water retention, Electric ant running, Loss of tactile sensation, Lymphatic swelling, Water retention, Skin irritation, Loss of appetite or exuberant eating, Entire abdomen (Emotional storage /Miasma emptying) Gonads (Connection, value to life as a whole /Micro /Macrocosm, Evolution solar system) Ear ringing (Orchestrating new field frequency) bursting out through mood swings, hatred, aggression, rage, exuberant actionism of negative expression, word-splitting of the ego, complete acceptance, peace and bliss, acting consciously with inner knowing, neutrality, wholeness, dissolution of judgement and evaluation, not looking at the single individual but accepting the many threads of interaction as a whole in the individual.

Also strong hair growth, colour changes, strong nail growth, more upright posture.

Chakras 1- 3 - 4 - 5- 7- 8
11- 22- 44

Turn days - 1 - 17- 21 - 22 - 29

Portal days - 10, 12, 31

Honour your Self and do not settle for half-hearted people or unhealthy energy. Honour your Self, use the domino effect and catalyse/connect with your peers and as one part of the whole, actively inspire the whole of oneness within you.

To all a fantastic midsummer turn with many flow states
