You move more than your individual mission in this life INITIATION 12:12:12 h UT (CEST+1)
Starcode 333, 444

You were born here to herald Christ consciousness, you are initiated to find the boldness to follow your calling.

This holy December the Divine Feminine Energy is now born on Earth for you to finally find the balance between informed incoming energies and magnetic resonances.

12:12, 333, 10 the healing vibration sent from creation and flowing through Alcyone.

Past wounds have been catapulted to the surface to be cleared and healed. The collective, your energy of the last 10 years (initiation 12/12/12, 333 - 12/12/19,333) is defeated.

Leave the fear and harmful limitations behind and now step into your purifying, clearing 10 day alignment 12/12 -21/12 of your detox program for your radiant reality.

A highly potent phase of being able to cut through conditioned behavior, beliefs, fear based thought constructs, harmful connections and situations.

Your new emerging authentic identity automatically detaches you from that society that displays provocative, abusive, controlling, manipulative, derogatory, critical aggression. You cannot help but feel how incredibly sensitive your new way of being, your all manifested divine feminine energy, this most feminine rebirth is.

In fact, your higher self has brought you more uncomfortable situations where there has been much darkness and destruction, so that your powerful infinite Light of Truth can ignite the darkness that you cannot consciously control.

You alone are able to do your work in this birth as a brave female warrior to resolve the situations of the wounded male archetype. You alone are able to anchor the feminine energy of the new archetype as a male warrior.

The work of this feminine healing phase was hard to allow trauma to occur in karma and ancestral lines. It is now almost complete, now this, your, all, new feminine energy can germinate within you, collectively, to grow and give birth.

Physical perception in the sacral chakra - pregnancy symptoms - nausea, vomiting, sensitive sense of smell, bulging abdomen, bleeding in between, chest pain - intensified connection activation, crystalline alignment amygdala/frontal cortex/heart fractal/solar plexus - stabbing pulling headache, pressure

Psychic perception - highly sensitive emotional field - both polarities love versus fear, - intensified connection activation, crystalline alignment amygdala/ frontal cortex/ heart fractal/solar plexus - conditioned fear deficiency programs versus higher consciousness programs

Accept, for yourself, that it can be difficult in this newly encoded 10s phase, that it may not feel good that you have to die during this process so that your previous way of being can die and the rebirth of the new way of being can be heralded. Accept that it can be really, really painful (sh...) long - as many births can be.

But remember, this is the work for the end of a long cycle in which you have descended into a darkened world.

Remember, these painful contractions, these contractions, these contractions are the rebirth of the world as it was always intended to be in existence from creation.

BE IN THE TRUTH OF REALITY

You move from 9-19/12 at hyper-accelerated speed in the wormhole of expansion. The channel connecting heaven and earth has increased the pulsation/amplitude - 81/9 times since this morning, parallel to the portal days, the first influences of the full moon and the christian creation portal. Completion phase in the Trinity process of the 3rd year. Intensified opening phase of the new 500 Earth evolutionary spiral.

2020/4 Time of social resetting - Collective creation connection

2021/5- 2022/6 Time of major change

2025/9- 2030/5 Time of major shift

High frequency interstellar particles flood the pulse of Gaia and all its inhabitants to raise the collective and therefore your consciousness.

This increase in frequency will cause a lot of geo-activity in the spiral of the next 10 days - quakes, volcanic eruptions, storm surges (ocean of the sky), more intense tides. Collective - revolutions and power shifts. Earthling - body correspondence - disorientation, lack of concentration, increased blood pressure and pulse, frontal cortex, amygdala, lens calibration - headaches, pulling in tendons/ligaments/muscles, wrists, hands, ankles left/right knee, Femoral neck (outer side - inner side = hip), lumbar vertebrae, razor-sharp stab-like back pain - along the spinal canal and branching nerve tracts, jaw and atlas - increased risk of accidents emotional rollercoaster ride

Photon-storing food - fruits and vegetables, the three enable fluid molecular flow in your embodied system - caution sugar - inhibits crystalline light flooding in your bioillumination.

You are now in the process of merging your different layers, your mind- mental- emotional- body levels of the current and all your journeys of experience into one of the NOW. Remember, all these layers and their individual vibrations, and yet the vast number of experience journeys have caused the most diverse resonances in all the respective time lines and their wounds to vibrate. They are raised to a common level, that of the NOW

As in a large string orchestra consisting of many violinists, the individual instruments, their strings adjusted to a uniform tone of the NOW, are played. Old oscillation resonances are cleaned up, cancelled, new oscillation resonances are woven in and encoded.

For action and reaction the planetary celestial stage is responsible to correlate with the individual vibration...

Main aspects 9- 19/12

Jupiter square Chiron Mercury wanders into Sagittarius/Ophiuchus' house ... old wounds of the past, open your mind to shift your thinking mind so that self-belief/confidence can increase.

10/12 Mercury Trine/Aspect Chiron speech/sound has a healing effect, brought into vibration a healing effect

11-19/12 Venus in conjunction (one line) with Saturn creates a base or solid fusion for a natural victory of love.

12/12 Full moon in Gemini squared to Neptune Disorientation Lack of concentration Training Intuition

13- 19/12 Chiron station for forward alignment, Mars trine / Neptune aspect, Venus conjunction to Pluto.

Pain and suffering are most intensely accumulated, a push, a test to show what you have been able to learn and integrate into the new way of being in the last five months - relationship interaction(s) - appreciation of life, appreciation of the triggers - first building block for healing, appreciation of the nature of life, appreciation of your counterpart, appreciation of your surroundings, appreciation of where you live, where you work, how you get there, appreciation of the dramas and traumas, appreciation of yourself, appreciation of your nature, appreciation of yourself

15- 19/12 Jupiter Trine/Aspect Uranus great awakening sudden growth great revolution joy and freedom initiation solstice elevation

As you glide through the depths of this wormhole, in this transition, the truth to the connection and meaning of your life will reveal itself to you.

Your knowledge, your appreciation of everyone and everything is the link between heaven and earth to break through boundaries, the membrane of love and its polarity of fear. It is the time of innovation, of soul revelation and birth of your creation-authentic integer self.

You must continue to grow, there is no time for stagnation in this acceleration of the light quotients of your and all embodiment.
