11:11:11:11:11:11:11:11:11:11 - Interstellar Equilibrium

The light of the morning of the new world order rises

Everything is information- we talked about it some time ago - Shift Update 1-30/11 - and remember the importance of learning to understand deeper into the knowledge of the flow of information, its transformation and resulting reactions in the transformation of your current form of embodiment.

Every action, every thought forms the reality of Elementary Matter - Encoding Star Code 22222 - 222,220 times cumulative light infusion from 8/1

Your task is to recognize the illusion of dependency by external circumstances, ultimately also of the physical circumstance and its expression the aspect of separation - the illusion of the membrane (separation) of the heart fragment with the torus of reality - and to merge it again - this requires DISCIPLIN

Discipline is the crown jewel among your tools that are anchored in you, but is always buried by the overpowering human aspects.

When you enter this world here, the information of Universal Love is the essence of your core substance.

But many of you still have fears, let yourselves be guided by them. But fear is what you acquire on your spiritual journey through interaction. Through fears, potential for violence arises, with many gradations.

Powerlessness fuels anger in a small form, in a pronounced form a claim of authority, and wars arise from this.

Your task is to reverse these feelings, to free yourself from human fears and prejudices and to carry the acceptance of love back into your heart of embodiment.

The goal of your way of being does not find its meaning in the meaning of things, but through the truthfulness of love within yourself.

The exchange of information takes place through you!

Your embodiment, your microcosm, is the connection to the Source Self, to the Omniverse. You yourself represent the bridge between heaven and earth. With each of your thought creation you form the collective in which you live and reflect your stage of development back to the Source.

These manifestations of your self are not about being optimistic from the beginning.

No, this journey is about diving deep into your own universe to find the way of being, how you can best realize your blueprint of the helix within you and - especially now in year 4 - a new building construction of the collective.

There is no point in choosing a positive thought if you cannot feel it - here you are building incoherence. Only by feeling deeply, when your beliefs, habits, comfort zones are shifted, will your building blocks create a solid foundation for coherence.

Through coherence, even the Omniverse knows what you really want, you feel bliss, you unpack more software (consciousness) for your hardware (body), you feel pain cumulative - in you and the collective.

The energy organs/padmas/chakras, originally in the human anatomy of the microcosm of the universe (chakras 1-7 - solid level), were connected by worldly/manifest objects such as planets, sun, moon, mountains, rivers, meanders, fauna, flora.

Current object-intensification in the House of the Threshold, the Cosmic Mother - at 20° - TRANSFER

Full moon, CEST 14.22h and lunar eclipse, CEST 11.22h 10/1/4

Liberation from emotional dramas, vices and the completion of the lessons learned. A culmination of reflecting your hidden aspects of the Self when the Feminine - and Male Qualia face each other.

Quintuple Object Energy Fusion of Sun/20° - Mercury/20° - Ceres (all 3 only 1° away from the following ones) Saturn-Pluto - House of Grounding 22°-

Everything has been considered in the smallest detail, that all creation, all omniverses live in your co-creation.

You, as an aspirant of the Source of your embodiment, must learn to feel all these - Feminine and Masculine principles. The Kundalini, the microcosmic manifestation of your original energy, shows you on which dimensional level of your development you are interacting - lowest level 1. chakra highest 7. chakra) Many of you are experiencing an evolutionary software update of the right-sided region complex of the amygdala and the frontal cortex.

As a reminder - both are crucial for recalling emotionally charged autobiographical information. If the process is harmonious, the ventromedial prefrontal cortex is active.

When deactivated, the amygdala - primeval fears - anxieties - primeval fears activate and express themselves in the respective chakra, which in turn indicates the developmental status of your journey.

Your mirror image sends this information back to the source, which in turn sends an accumulated software update to your hardware until the virus you created in your software that manipulates your hardware neutralizes/deactivates it.

If you want to navigate the entropy of the universe, the coherence, you have to release the old burdens of your consciousness to create new fractals/bricks into the coherence of the universe, all collective.

Then activate the Trinity light connecting channels in your physical embodiment -

HEARTBRAIN - BUILDINGBRAIN - Neural nervous system and BRAIN - Consciousness / Mind

Star code activation 11:11, 22:22, 44 at night from 2 to 3/1 night 03.30h 3/1 duration 9 days Point Zero - Survey - Transit Zone - Momentum Airport

All natural order of creation of life springs from the heart - feminine Qualia,

The most important energy organ of the year 4, before your solar plexus and root organ - the diamond cut of the fractal heart.

Only published love, lived for yourself, for others, for every millisecond in the everyday life of your world, potentiates the beacon of all.

Expulsion for bitterness, anger, ego, drama, envy, hatred, arrogance, illusion.

Ready for the check into a new soul level?

In the 3rd year most of the light so far has been anchored in Gaia/Terra and all her living nature as well as in you, the basic building blocks of Unconditional Love.

In Universal Year 4 you welcome this divine particle radiation within you - send your invitation like a satellite - 366 days, 52 weeks +1 day, 8760 h, 525600min, 31.536.000sec. cosmic hyperfrequency vibrations for the publication of LOVE

This energy was preceded by many synchronicities and memory factors, your incarnation, your ancestors, your universal memory store of the last decade.

In the last hours your perception can be as if you are crossing quicksand - an intense, fast-acting detox program to quickly untangle the shackles of your last decade.

If you feel overwhelmed by pain, your way of being, the expression of guilt, shame, guilt, you will find that if you have not been able to truly practice forgiveness in your heart, you will find that your chains can only be broken by the key of forgiveness and the gratitude that grows from it.

During this walk - remember..... open your lenses for clarity ... in all darkness dwells also the light.

An opportunity to take action to make things changeable only through your own action towards freedom/reality, where everything is parallel/synchronous, trust in your reality.

Recognize that when you run away from problems you only increase the distance to the path of solution.

Remember every day, every second, who you are, where earthling your soul directs you and you will have your brain fired and encoded in a new sequence, new patterns, new combinations - whenever your brain works differently, the coherence changes.

Hurry to truly publish your reality, to transfer your truth into the collective of the huge aircraft carrier.

Before the great chaos accumulates, not a pleasant rush for many - in the month of March, when the engines of the Master Carrier cascade into complete ignition.

In your terminal of the Now Moment, it may be that you have felt yourself walking in quicksand for the last few hours, condensed.

On the one hand, these are the above mentioned shackles of the last decade, on the other hand you feel the vacuum between the planes.

An emptiness that is absolutely necessary to provide rest for your soul to integrate the last Star Upgrades - get excited about this process.

Water and its crystalline format helps you to let the energy flow of these upgrades flow more harmoniously - before you rise into new clearings, a new deep connection with the universe.

All your dreams already clearly show you your longing for adventure, for passion, for the new goals of the new world.

The feeling when the past, the future and the present extend to the only Being, and everything that you will embody has been within you from the beginning.

In this terrain, during your sleep, you can already tap into this unique energy. Strong sacred impressions, hidden truths that accompany you during your day-consciousness, consciously or unconsciously, information from your history that still needs to be processed and future-oriented sequences flow into each other.

A cosmic whisper that activates the heart-brain, brings about synchronicities, emotions that can no longer be ignored or pushed aside. Everything for your own good to adjust the inner compass, the inner navigation device to the answers that have been slumbering within you since the beginning.

The current path of your soul is the path of understanding. Understanding the promise of new horizons of intense experiences where the pulsation of crystalline data paths, merging wormholes and light honeycomb connections lifts your body as well as the Gaias/Terra/Earth

- many geoactivities are caused by subatomic nuclear heat information carriers - storm/ hurricanes and storm surges, more intense tides, earthquakes, heat/heat waves, electromagnetic amplitude fluctuations
- in the swelling

Creation speaks -

Just because you can recognize a painful past does not mean that you cannot have a powerful future that follows my plan rather than your pain.

Shift Update 1/4 2019

30 December 2019 Jada Alesandra Seidl

Picture source Jada Private

2020 marks the beginning of a powerful decade of continuous change and deep soul growth - full of heart coherence - activation a solid foundation is being built by you encoding a new world order.

An energy shift with great breakthroughs as we all last experienced 3 and 5 decades ago on a collective level.

For you, this year of 4 will be full of experiences of the highest summit conquests and avalanche crashes, but always to make this breakthrough happen.

Respectfully, the test content will be great, but the rewards will be even greater.

Many, many years of outdated mental conditioning have been cleared out and cleared away from you. Your soul has gone through a rebirth after rebirth to experience more and more separation from mass consciousness.

If you wish to elevate things to a completely new level, the year 2020/22/4 holds the voucher to the next decade of the creation plan for you.

Intensify your learning, the language of life, energy and its vibration for better understanding.

Understand the obligations of your soul of both formative conjunctive currents of the year 2020 - Saturn-Pluto/Capricorn and Jupiter-Saturn/Aquarius which offer a higher way forward.

This past year has been all about peeling your truly authentic identity, your Self, your Inner Universe, out of the cocoon and into the world of matter to unfold all your radiance.

Sometimes, even in the unfolding field of unconditional love, especially now, you still experience loneliness, highly emotional and depressing moments, even though you are surrounded by many people.

But you may also find that through surreal, strange encounters of people, situations, parts of your past appear in matter.

An expression of creation that shows you how far you have already risen above this phase of your past life.

And yes, your encounter knows, your lessons, the shoes you have been walking in so far have been finally shed, passed on to let others learn those lessons.

The high (especially physical and mental) stress, the confusing interactions, collective events from 2018/2-19/3 will be replaced by stable threads, but this still requires hard work and commitment.

Give thanks for your so great development and open yourself with your brand new wings for a series of new explorations in the layers of the new eon.

As 2020 approaches, the qualia shifts to the interaction of the reality of your Self, integrated or ignored interstellar lectures of your conscious being, exam content with your Self and all your collective interaction.

Right at the beginning of the new decade the grounded energy of Capricorn will be especially strong and thus set the next course.

With the three powerful celestial bodies, Jupiter, Saturn and Pluto, which are especially strong in the house of Capricorn (materializing/manifesting), you can crystallize your visions.

Both Jupiter and Saturn are enduring teachers and guardians of time - individually and collectively, while Pluto accelerates transcendence transformation and transcending the previous limits with Transformation.

A completely different, new, truly fresh, energy-rich annual portal opens for you to recognize, believe and ultimately realize.

You are born, your new life in the new age. Released and potentiated more intensely each time Jupiter and Pluto connect (April - July - November), the switches that will bring your visions to life unlock.

Already Mercury in dance with Jupiter on 2/1 tells you that you are never, never too old, too small, too inferior to learn, to experience. Right after this release the messenger of the gods continues dancing to the south knot conjunction.

Mars moves into the great Healer/Shooter's House on 3/1, encoding your pioneering spirit, inspiration for the unknown, and connects with Chiron on 5/1 to reinforce your nature of courage against the fear of survival.

6/1 - 13/1 Pluto, Saturn, Mercury and Ceres stay in Capricorn at 22° to anchor the nine building blocks in the foundation of reality itself.

The House of Threshold, of Cancer (direct source and stem connection) will continue to emerge through two powerful eclipses 10/1 and 21/6.

With today (29/12), six celestial bodies will arrive for the epochal decade alignment in the House of Capricorn and synchronously in the south node.

The Moon Node since December 2018 in the House of Threshold / Cancer / North Node and unseals the points for the House of Materialized Earth / Capricorn in the South Node.

Thereby the attention is still directed to the emotional well-being of the earthlings. Due to the exponentially increasing speed of events, one or the other earthling has difficulties to navigate with calmness and composure.

Especially the young seeds, especially crystal, rainbow and indigo suffer from the emotional challenges of their HSP.

Here, until the beginning of June, the shifting of the node axis - North Node in Gemini - will indicate where you, we, will go next in unity. With the shift of the North Node, the South Node Alignment will also change, moving into the Healer/Shooter's House. Immediately delivers new truths and insights into old beliefs, which serve to stabilize your newly encoded way of being.

When the realist Saturn celebrates a great clash with destruction and rebirth on 12/1/4, a completely new kind of reality sets in.

The old way of being must die to give birth to a new one.

Out of this, coherence immediately gives birth. A state in which the heart, mind and emotions interact energetically connected. In this state resilience is formed - in which your personal energy increases, provides you with more energy to realize intentions and harmonious states and never gets worn out again.

Through expansive mind-altering synchronization between emotional, cognitive and physiological systems, the ability to self-regulate is encoded and a fluid subatomic upgrade is formatted with brand new evolutionary embodiment.

2020 is the year of the unmasking of all malevolent energy in the darkest depths of all existing universes, destroying sick, unstable, dogmatic, deceptive, illusory structures.

Any illusion of the entrenched narratives of ruling patriarchates that monolithic traumas of your history cannot be overcome (physical seat amygdala, assigned to Pluto/destruction-abuse) to continue to grow the fruit of power, fear.

Any illusion that has allowed patriarchies and governments to germinate to manipulate your conscious mind will bubble to the surface naked.

Any illusion where female energy sources (frontal cortex physical seat, Ceres Evolution and its cycles) of the fractal heart would not be safe if this world were not robbed of them so that you continue to fear the future will evaporate.

Any illusion of rising above other beings in this evolutionary new paradigm and not seeing them as equals will collapse completely.

If the previous course is not changed, this epic reset cannot and will not survive.

If abuse of power is involved, it is only a matter of time before something is done to correct, remedy, change situations -2020 is the start of this new changing decade.

This clearing up will last until 2021/5, release yourself from the clutches of budding fears and pain, these triggers remind you of the first steps of your shining wholeness.

Those changes will not be immediately visible, but their effects - whatever happens - will have a lasting impact for many generations.

In the New Earth Year it is not a matter of diving into darkness to heal it, but of rising out of it together, so high that the only choice is surrender.

For your well-being in 2020- make sure to cut the threads of all connections with expectation. Only in this way can deception of the old timeline, through the new definition of divine justice of the new age of truth (which is already alive in you) enter and blow off everything else.

Nevertheless, the New Earth Year is the materialization of the Age of Aquarius and is also loaded with higher-level current cosmic streams to transcendence.

The Age of Aquarius is encoded on the neutral, objective truth of an earthling. Through self-discipline and sovereignty, malicious intentions and evaluations of the most diverse circumstances can be immediately exposed to expose illusion and deception.

A newly sharpened tool, which mostly through outside (collective) influences, lets you die many times to be reborn - necessary because every Earthling has to take over full energetic responsibility for the alignment of this planet into the new paradigm by the end of the year (21/12 Jupiter/Saturn 0° Aquarius).

When Jupiter and Saturn come together, both the intensity of the dying of old forms and the fertility of new growth takes shape.

Over the past century their cycle has adapted to the transition between the decades, with the conjunctions and oppositions between Jupiter and Saturn marking the beginning of each decade.

Jupiter and Saturn will form their next conjunction in the first stage of Aquarius on 21 December 2020. The largest and most intense part of year 4 will therefore take place at the end of their cycle.

Jupiter and Saturn will conjugate approximately every 20 years. From 1802 to 1980 almost all of these conjunctions were in earth signs (Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn).

These phases correlate with the industrial revolution.

In 1980 the conjunction appeared in an air sign - always a sign of the beginning of a new era that will last until about 2149. Currently we find ourselves in the Digital Revolution (PC Internet, mobile phone)

In the year 2000 the Jupiter-Saturn conjunction was found in an earth sign. And in December 2020 it appears again in an air sign.

The 20 years between each Jupiter-Saturn conjunction are divided into two phases. The first phase - the 10 years from conjunction to opposition - is about growth, opportunities and expansion. This phase is predominantly Jupiterian/growing - like a growing moon.

At the end of the first decade the Jupiter-Saturn opposition follows both beings act similar to the full moon's interior energy, marking the climax of the Jupiter phase and the transition to the Saturn-dominated phase. Which aligns itself from the opposition to the next conjunction - similar to the energy qualities of the waning moon.

The 21/12/4/2020 thus marks the beginning of about 10 years of growth, expansion and general optimism on a global scale.

Reflect on the 1960s - a very similar phase that culminated in 1969 (moon landing, first Concorde and Boeing 747 flights, Woodstock, Easy Rider, Generation Hippie, peaceful but certain revolution) encoded.

Also the 1980s decade, the massive rise of the personal computer, fall of the Berlin Wall.

So one of the benefits of the Jupiter-Saturn conjunction for 2020 is that humanity will be free from the stale and backward phase from which we are currently freeing ourselves.

Fossil fuels are no longer needed. Artificial intelligence, quantum computers and incredible advances in new medicine, ideas and technologies, and work-life balance are all just around the corner.

At the edge of this new era, right at the beginning of the new cycle of the year, an atmosphere of anticipation will build up, even though landslides are pre-programmed and problems of the old nature require solutions.

If you look at a Saturn and Jupiter cycle from a higher perspective, it more or less expresses the structural viability of an entire (collective) society.

Now, while you can see things of concern on the collective world stage in 4, you are experiencing a phase on the energetic level where you can truly ascend and free yourself from the heaviness of old ways of thinking.

Perhaps not free from darkness, but in a lighter, floating, truly lived authentic way of being.

Remember, there are only two spaces in your life that are unimportant in the moment of life - yesterday and tomorrow.

Love greetings from the spheres between the years - THANK YOU for all your being in 2019/3 and wide stretched, high carrying wings that allow you to cross the crest of the years in a feathery light floating fantastic way.....see you in 4/2020
